

Ardales Tempranillo 2011

90 Points

Ardales Tempranillo 2011 is aged for four months in French and American oak casks, 60% of them new. Vivid ruby color. Spice-accented aromas of red and dark berries and pungent flowers, along with hints of vanilla and woodsmoke. Fresh and precise on the palate, offering gently sweet raspberry and floral pastille flavors and a touch of spiciness. Shows very good tenacity and nerve on the long, sappy finish, with easygoing tannins providing shape.
