

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Besllum 2011

90 Points

Besllum 2011 is produced from 45% carinena, 45% garnacha, and 10% syrah and aged for 15 months in new French, American, and Hungarian oak casks. Dark purple color. The fresh cherry and dark berry aromas are complicated by cola and toasty oak spices. The chewy palate is focused with cherry and blackberry flavors that are energized by notes of peppery spices. The long finish features black chocolate and vanilla qualities and a youthful tannic grip.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Besllum 2011

90 Points

Besllum 2011 is produced from 45% carinena, 45% garnacha, and 10% syrah and aged for 15 months in new French, American, and Hungarian oak casks. Dark purple color. The fresh cherry and dark berry aromas are complicated by cola and toasty oak spices. The chewy palate is focused with cherry and blackberry flavors that are energized by notes of peppery spices. The long finish features black chocolate and vanilla qualities and a youthful tannic grip.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Besllum 2011

90 Points

Besllum 2011 is produced from 45% carinena, 45% garnacha, and 10% syrah and aged for 15 months in new French, American, and Hungarian oak casks. Dark purple color. The fresh cherry and dark berry aromas are complicated by cola and toasty oak spices. The chewy palate is focused with cherry and blackberry flavors that are energized by notes of peppery spices. The long finish features black chocolate and vanilla qualities and a youthful tannic grip.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Besllum 2011

90 Points

Besllum 2011 is produced from 45% carinena, 45% garnacha, and 10% syrah and aged for 15 months in new French, American, and Hungarian oak casks. Dark purple color. The fresh cherry and dark berry aromas are complicated by cola and toasty oak spices. The chewy palate is focused with cherry and blackberry flavors that are energized by notes of peppery spices. The long finish features black chocolate and vanilla qualities and a youthful tannic grip.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Besllum 2011

90 Points

Besllum 2011 is produced from 45% carinena, 45% garnacha, and 10% syrah and aged for 15 months in new French, American, and Hungarian oak casks. Dark purple color. The fresh cherry and dark berry aromas are complicated by cola and toasty oak spices. The chewy palate is focused with cherry and blackberry flavors that are energized by notes of peppery spices. The long finish features black chocolate and vanilla qualities and a youthful tannic grip.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Besllum 2011

90 Points

Besllum 2011 is produced from 45% carinena, 45% garnacha, and 10% syrah and aged for 15 months in new French, American, and Hungarian oak casks. Dark purple color. The fresh cherry and dark berry aromas are complicated by cola and toasty oak spices. The chewy palate is focused with cherry and blackberry flavors that are energized by notes of peppery spices. The long finish features black chocolate and vanilla qualities and a youthful tannic grip.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014