

Casajus Antiguos Vinedos 2011

92 Points

Aged for 14 months in new French and American oak casks. Bright violet color. Deeply pitched aromas of blackberry, cola, fresh flowers and peppery spices, with a suave vanilla quality adding complexity. Palate coating, dark fruit flavors show excellent depth with floral pastille and cracked pepper notes providing lift. Rich and expansive with very good finishing clarity, length, and supple and slowing building tannins.

December, 2015

Casajus Antiguos Vinedos 2011

92 Points

Aged for 14 months in new French and American oak casks. Bright violet color. Deeply pitched aromas of blackberry, cola, fresh flowers and peppery spices, with a suave vanilla quality adding complexity. Palate coating, dark fruit flavors show excellent depth with floral pastille and cracked pepper notes providing lift. Rich and expansive with very good finishing clarity, length, and supple and slowing building tannins.

December, 2015

Casajus Antiguos Vinedos 2011

92 Points

Aged for 14 months in new French and American oak casks. Bright violet color. Deeply pitched aromas of blackberry, cola, fresh flowers and peppery spices, with a suave vanilla quality adding complexity. Palate coating, dark fruit flavors show excellent depth with floral pastille and cracked pepper notes providing lift. Rich and expansive with very good finishing clarity, length, and supple and slowing building tannins.

December, 2015

Casajus Antiguos Vinedos 2011

92 Points

Aged for 14 months in new French and American oak casks. Bright violet color. Deeply pitched aromas of blackberry, cola, fresh flowers and peppery spices, with a suave vanilla quality adding complexity. Palate coating, dark fruit flavors show excellent depth with floral pastille and cracked pepper notes providing lift. Rich and expansive with very good finishing clarity, length, and supple and slowing building tannins.

December, 2015

Casajus Antiguos Vinedos 2011

92 Points

Aged for 14 months in new French and American oak casks. Bright violet color. Deeply pitched aromas of blackberry, cola, fresh flowers and peppery spices, with a suave vanilla quality adding complexity. Palate coating, dark fruit flavors show excellent depth with floral pastille and cracked pepper notes providing lift. Rich and expansive with very good finishing clarity, length, and supple and slowing building tannins.

December, 2015

Casajus Antiguos Vinedos 2011

92 Points

Aged for 14 months in new French and American oak casks. Bright violet color. Deeply pitched aromas of blackberry, cola, fresh flowers and peppery spices, with a suave vanilla quality adding complexity. Palate coating, dark fruit flavors show excellent depth with floral pastille and cracked pepper notes providing lift. Rich and expansive with very good finishing clarity, length, and supple and slowing building tannins.

December, 2015