

i-winereview.com

Mateo Cambra 2015

90 Points

Mateo Cambra is an old vine Garnacha that was sourced from vineyards in Rioja at 2300 feet elevation. Aged for 11 months in used French oak casks, Mateo Cambra shows nuanced aromas of bacon fat, smoke, and creosote with accents of black tea. Seductive and showing notable depth, this wine is driven by racy acidity which highlights flavors of black olive tapenade, black tea, black cherry, and spices. This is a forward and simply delicious Garnacha.

i-winereview.com

Mateo Cambra 2015

90 Points

Mateo Cambra is an old vine Garnacha that was sourced from vineyards in Rioja at 2300 feet elevation. Aged for 11 months in used French oak casks, Mateo Cambra shows nuanced aromas of bacon fat, smoke, and creosote with accents of black tea. Seductive and showing notable depth, this wine is driven by racy acidity which highlights flavors of black olive tapenade, black tea, black cherry, and spices. This is a forward and simply delicious Garnacha.

i-winereview.com

Mateo Cambra 2015

90 Points

Mateo Cambra is an old vine Garnacha that was sourced from vineyards in Rioja at 2300 feet elevation. Aged for 11 months in used French oak casks, Mateo Cambra shows nuanced aromas of bacon fat, smoke, and creosote with accents of black tea. Seductive and showing notable depth, this wine is driven by racy acidity which highlights flavors of black olive tapenade, black tea, black cherry, and spices. This is a forward and simply delicious Garnacha.

i-winereview.com

Mateo Cambra 2015

90 Points

Mateo Cambra is an old vine Garnacha that was sourced from vineyards in Rioja at 2300 feet elevation. Aged for 11 months in used French oak casks, Mateo Cambra shows nuanced aromas of bacon fat, smoke, and creosote with accents of black tea. Seductive and showing notable depth, this wine is driven by racy acidity which highlights flavors of black olive tapenade, black tea, black cherry, and spices. This is a forward and simply delicious Garnacha.

i-winereview.com

Mateo Cambra 2015

90 Points

Mateo Cambra is an old vine Garnacha that was sourced from vineyards in Rioja at 2300 feet elevation. Aged for 11 months in used French oak casks, Mateo Cambra shows nuanced aromas of bacon fat, smoke, and creosote with accents of black tea. Seductive and showing notable depth, this wine is driven by racy acidity which highlights flavors of black olive tapenade, black tea, black cherry, and spices. This is a forward and simply delicious Garnacha.

i-winereview.com

Mateo Cambra 2015

90 Points

Mateo Cambra is an old vine Garnacha that was sourced from vineyards in Rioja at 2300 feet elevation. Aged for 11 months in used French oak casks, Mateo Cambra shows nuanced aromas of bacon fat, smoke, and creosote with accents of black tea. Seductive and showing notable depth, this wine is driven by racy acidity which highlights flavors of black olive tapenade, black tea, black cherry, and spices. This is a forward and simply delicious Garnacha.