

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Sancho Baron 2011

88 Points

Sancho Baron 2011 is produced from tempranillo and aged for 16 months in new and used French oak casks. The wine has a bright ruby color with a ripe blackberry and cherry vanilla aromas and a subtle licorice undertone. Velvety, dark berry preserve flavors show good depth with a strong impression of oak spices. The long finish features creamy mocha and vanilla qualities. There is plenty of fruitiness here.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Sancho Baron 2011

88 Points

Sancho Baron 2011 is produced from tempranillo and aged for 16 months in new and used French oak casks. The wine has a bright ruby color with a ripe blackberry and cherry vanilla aromas and a subtle licorice undertone. Velvety, dark berry preserve flavors show good depth with a strong impression of oak spices. The long finish features creamy mocha and vanilla qualities. There is plenty of fruitiness here.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Sancho Baron 2011

88 Points

Sancho Baron 2011 is produced from tempranillo and aged for 16 months in new and used French oak casks. The wine has a bright ruby color with a ripe blackberry and cherry vanilla aromas and a subtle licorice undertone. Velvety, dark berry preserve flavors show good depth with a strong impression of oak spices. The long finish features creamy mocha and vanilla qualities. There is plenty of fruitiness here.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Sancho Baron 2011

88 Points

Sancho Baron 2011 is produced from tempranillo and aged for 16 months in new and used French oak casks. The wine has a bright ruby color with a ripe blackberry and cherry vanilla aromas and a subtle licorice undertone. Velvety, dark berry preserve flavors show good depth with a strong impression of oak spices. The long finish features creamy mocha and vanilla qualities. There is plenty of fruitiness here.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Sancho Baron 2011

88 Points

Sancho Baron 2011 is produced from tempranillo and aged for 16 months in new and used French oak casks. The wine has a bright ruby color with a ripe blackberry and cherry vanilla aromas and a subtle licorice undertone. Velvety, dark berry preserve flavors show good depth with a strong impression of oak spices. The long finish features creamy mocha and vanilla qualities. There is plenty of fruitiness here.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

Stephen Tanzer's

INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

Sancho Baron 2011

88 Points

Sancho Baron 2011 is produced from tempranillo and aged for 16 months in new and used French oak casks. The wine has a bright ruby color with a ripe blackberry and cherry vanilla aromas and a subtle licorice undertone. Velvety, dark berry preserve flavors show good depth with a strong impression of oak spices. The long finish features creamy mocha and vanilla qualities. There is plenty of fruitiness here.

ISSUE 176 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014